

Introducing the nonstop party wardrobe of the 21st century: Pink Lipstick Lingerie. Bold, sexy, tight, and daring, Pink Lipstick is made for the girl who lives for the night, every night. Styles range from skimpy to downright raunchy, and we're coming up with new and better ways every day to outfit this wild, wicked world.

Pink Lipstick is naughty bedroom gear, pop-party wear, risqué exotic wear, and envelope-pushing clubwear. Pink Lipstick lives behind velvet ropes, in a world where dawn never arrives, and the party never stops.

A few years ago, we noticed that the trends in lingerie didn't match what we actually saw out in the clubs. Lingerie was too frilly and lacy—too ladylike for the crazy all-night parties of today. So we put together a team of top designers, hired the hottest models, and created a brand especially for 24/7 party people—especially for you! Made to be layered with your clubbing outfit, or worn alone for when you really want to let it all hang out, these versatile, sexy styles give you everything you want at a price that won't break the bank.
